

NORTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY
Department of Mathematics

The Mathematics Department at North Carolina State University invites applications for a tenure-track, rank-open, position beginning Fall 2009. We seek individuals whose research focuses on modeling in Bio-Medical Mathematics and will play an active role in the Center for Quantitative Sciences in Biomedicine (CQSB), the Center for Research in Scientific Computing (CRSC) and the Bio-Math Program. The successful candidate will be expected to quickly provide scientific vision and leadership for the new CQSB. Preference will be given to applicants that have established a successful record of grant support and advising of Ph.D. students. Candidates must have a Ph.D. in the mathematical sciences, a record of successful postdoctoral experience or equivalent, experience in interdisciplinary research, and a commitment to effective teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

The Department of Mathematics has strong research programs in both applied and pure mathematics and provides/shares leadership for CQSB, CRSC and Bio-Math. More information about the department, CQSB and CRSC can be found at <http://www.math.ncsu.edu>.
