

NORTH CAROLINA STATE UNIVERSITY
Department of Mathematics

The Mathematics Department at North Carolina State University invites applications for a tenure-track position beginning Fall 2010, depending on the availability of funding. We are seeking an exceptionally well-qualified individual with research interests compatible with those in the department. All areas of pure and applied mathematics will be considered, but we are especially interested in candidates in the general area of analysis. Candidates must have a PhD in the mathematical sciences, an outstanding research program, a commitment to effective teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels and demonstrated potential for excellence in both research and teaching. She or he will likely have had successful post-doctoral experience. The Department of Mathematics has strong research programs in both pure and applied mathematics. Many members of the department participate in interdisciplinary programs and research groups on campus and in the broader Research Triangle community. More information about the department can be found at <http://www.math.ncsu.edu>.

To submit your application materials, go to <http://www.mathjobs.org/jobs/ncsu>. Include a vita, at least three letters of recommendation, and a description of current and planned research. You will then be given instructions to go to <http://jobs.ncsu.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=84158> and complete a Faculty Profile for the position.
